THE LEGEND OF MULAN

COURAGE WITH ACTION

SYNOPSIS

When we face adversity with resilience, we become stronger than we were before the challenge.

The Legend of Mulan serves as a powerful framework for our learners acting journey. Learners are challenged to embody Mulan's courage and resilience, developing skills in vocal clarity, posture, and physical presence.

Mulan is a fictional legendary character in Chinese literature, depicted as a peasant girl who disguised as a man, joins the army in place of her aged father. The tale most likely originated in the Northern Wei Period (386-535 CE) of ancient China and has been adapted by Disney into movies. The story of Mulan embodies the resilience of the individual in facing adversity by staying true to the right principles.

Message from our CEO

Allow me to take this opportunity to thank our learners and parents for the commitment this past term to train and rehearse our Spring Term Drama Production, the Legend of Mulan. The story embodies Courage, Bravery and Resilience.

Along with the theme, the aim of our Acting classes is to bring our learners to embark on a journey of self-discovery and growth, by understanding diverse roles in a drama production, and ability to work as a team.

Let me stress this important keyword one more time:
TEAMWORK

No matter how many lines and what is the role, all cast members need to work together to make the drama production. Every role complements each other, and every role is important. Adding to this equation is the teamwork from our teaching team, between cast members and teachers and between teachers and teachers.

NOT only in this drama production. In life every individual is unique, everyone has their own strengths and shortcomings, and everyone can learn from each other.

As Confucius said:

If I am walking with two other men, each of them will serve as my teacher. I will pick out the good points of the one and learn them, and the bad points of the other and correct them in myself.

Once again thank you for letting us work with these wonderful bunch. Hope everyone's uniqueness will shine today.
